- Welcome by the Chair of ENIEC, Lola Casal-Sánchez
- Housekeeping

10.15 - 10.30 Presentation of the theme inclusion by Hanna Carlsson.

This presentation will provide a critical discussion of inclusion in aged care, raising questions about what inclusion looks like, whose responsibility it is, and which dilemmas we encounter when working towards it.

10.30 - 10.45 Workshop on inclusion by Susanna Lehtovaara and Eva Rönkö.

10.45 - 11.15 Breaking rooms session.

- Inclusion and dementia facilitated by Carolien Smits and Frans Hoogeveen. In this workshop, the barriers and opportunities for elderly migrants with dementia to seek and receive adequate professional help are discussed.
- Moral case deliberation in elderly care facilitated by Elisabeth de Vries. How to reflect on moral grounds and dilemmas in daily elderly care? In this workshop, you will join a moral case deliberation and help others and yourself to get a wider view of your values and the choices you can make while exploring an actual case from the nursing home. More information about the moral case deliberation: <https://www.zaansmedischcentrum.nl/default/assets/File/Moral%20case%20deliberation.pdf>
- Inclusion in housing facilitated by Yvonne Witter and Aziza Aachiche. Older people with a migrant background are often satisfied with their home and living environment because they know the neighbourhood and facilities and their network are nearby. Nevertheless, they often live in unsuitable housing and lack the means to find another home. What is needed to create inclusive neighbourhoods where they can age comfortably?
- Discrimination and social inclusion in elderly healthcare facilitated by Roshnie Kolste. In this interactive workshop, we are going to talk about and share knowledge on the next topics: How do healthcare workers (in the elderly care) experience discrimination in their work. What are the causes and effects of this? And how elderly clients with a migrant background experience discrimination in healthcare.
